French director Cédric Klapisch (Potluck, Someone, Somewhere, Call my Agent) returns with Rise (En Corps) centring on real-life Paris Opera Ballet principal ballerina Marion Barbeau in her first film role.

The film will be previewed as part of the French Film Festival and will be screened exclusively at Ciné Lumière for a limited time from 18 November 2022.

A special screening on 22 November will be followed by a discussion with director Cédric Klapisch, choreographer Hofesh Shechter, dancers and actors Marion Barbeau and Robinson Cassarino, and other members of the cast and crew involved in the making of Rise.

Synopsis - Elise thought she had the perfect life: an ideal boyfriend and a promising career as a ballet dancer. It all falls apart the day she catches him cheating on her with her stage backup; and after she suffers an injury on stage, it seems like she might not be able to dance ever again. The path to physical and emotional recovery will lead her away from Paris to a picturesque location in Brittany - where her friends, a new love and the freedom of contemporary dance will help her reconnect with her father and most importantly, herself. A heart-warming and inspiring story that tells us how sometimes, the worst thing that could happen may turn out to be the best.
